Author Guidelines

1. Articles can be written in either British English or American English but the language usage should be consistent throughout the manuscript.
2. Each manuscript component must begin on a new page in the following sequence: (1) title page; (2) abstract and keywords; (3) text; (4) acknowledgements; (5) references; (6) figure legends; (7) tables; and (8) figures. You can download the template here. Please submit figures as separate figure files (jpeg or gif) with 300 dpi resolution or better.
3. Type manuscript double-spaced throughout (including reference list and figure legends), and contain continuous line numbering down the left-side of each page. Number pages consecutively commencing on the title page.
4. Articles should be not more than 6,000 words not including references and headers. If the author wishes to have a higher word limit, kindly indicate this in a request letter to be appended with the submitted manuscript.

Accepted file types:

1. For article text: txt, doc, docx. We are unable to accept pdf files for article text.
2. For figures: tiff, jpg, pdf

The Title Page

The title page should contain a concise title of the article, names of all contributing authors, affiliations, abstract and keywords. At the bottom of the title page, please write Correspondence followed by full name, affiliation and email of the respective author.

The Abstract

Limit the number of words to 300. It should state the purpose of the study, a brief description of the procedures employed, main findings and principal conclusions. At the end of the abstract, include an alphabetical list of 3-5 keywords and subjects for indexing. Choose the appropriate keywords as these will be used for subsequent retrieval.

The Text

It should consist of an Introduction, Methods, Results, Discussion and Conclusion/ Recommendation. Systeme Internationale (SI) Units should be used. Use only standard abbreviations. The full term for which an abbreviation stands should precede its first use in the text unless it is a standard unit of measurement.

References

Number the references in the order of mention in text. References in the text should be indicated by a figure within parenthesis e.g. (1,2). Limit references to 30, if possible. Identify references in text, tables and legends. The Latin abbreviation "œet al" should be italicized.

The titles of journals in the list should be abbreviated according to the Index Medicus.

Authors are responsible for the accuracy of all references. The editor can only check for the correctness of format. Follow the examples of forms of references as shown below.

Journal references should be cited as follows:

Tables

Start each table double-spaced on a separate sheet. Do not submit tables as photographs. Give each table a number in order of mention in text. Provide footnotes for explanatory matter and identify in alphabetical order all abbreviations used. Place all tables and figures at the end of the manuscript after the references. You may place callouts for the table and figures in the text. For example, write "œINSERT TABLE 1 HERE" to show where the table should appear within the text. All tables should be prepared for publication vertically.

Illustrations

We prefer that all illustrations and figures be submitted electronically. For electronic versions, authors are advised to submit figures as JPEG, TIFF or GIF formats; powerpoint slides and images embedded in Word documents do not transfer well to print unless they are simple line art. Abbreviations, arrows, symbols, numbers or letters used in the figures are to be identified and explained in the corresponding legends. Submit written permission from the copyright holder to reproduce any previously published figures. Colour photographs will be published at the author's expense.

Letter of Consent

[Instructions: Please check all applicable boxes and provide additional information as requested]

1. Conflict of Interest

Potential conflict of interest exists:

The nature of potential conflict of interest is described below:
